

Read the text on Komodo dragons.

You should be able to identify and label all 9 of these features of an information text. See how many you can find.

- 1) An introduction to orientate the reader
- 2) Informative facts
- 3) Evidence that the writer is an expert
- 4) Scientific language
- 5) Comparisons with similar species
- 6) Language which indicates the writer is certain of his facts
- 7) Language which indicates the writer is not certain of the facts
- 8) Evidence that the writer is fascinated by his subject
- 9) Evidence of formal language