

The Pennines, the Wear and the Heritage Coast are important geographical features.

There is the most wonderful coastline (ten glorious miles) where balmy beaches are gently caressed by comforting, shalimar-scented breezes which murmur enticing hints of mystery, promise and romance.

